Grave security lapse in Mumbai attack

*236. MS. SUSHILA TIRIYA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that India has faced first ever terrorist war in the shape of recent Mumbai attack;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) whether there has been a grave security lapse?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) A series of terrorist attacks involving indiscriminate firing, throwing of grenades and bomb blasts at 13 locations, including Chatrapati Shivaji Terminus, Leopold Caf, Taj Hotel, Oberoi-Trident Hotel and a building called 'Nariman House', took place in Mumbai in November, 2008. 10 Pakistani nationals belonging to the Lashkar-e-Toiba, a proscribed terrorist outfit, had left Karachi on November 23, 2008; boarded a launch by the name of Al-Hussaini; accosted and hijacked an Indian fishing vessel, M.V. Kuber, off the coast of Gujarat; killed Its occupants; and a few miles short of the coast of Mumbai abandoned the fishing vessel, got into an Inflatable rubber dinghy, and landed near Budhwar Park, Colaba, Mumbai between 8.00 p.m. and 8.30 p.m. on November 26, 2008. The terrorist incidents are under investigations by the State police.

(c) As soon as Information of firing at different locations was received, the State Government immediately deployed Police parties and senior officers also rushed to some of the locations. In one such encounter between police and terrorists, 3 police personel and 3 officers of the State police lost their lives, one terrorist was killed and one was captured alive. At the request of the State Government, 5 columns of the army were also deployed to cordon off the affected areas and the Navy deployed their Commandos. Meanwhile, at about 11.30 p.m., the Government of Maharashtra asked for National Security Guard (NSG). The Central Government Immediately alerted and mobilized the NSG Units based at Manesar in Haryana. A group of 200 men (which was re-informed the next day) was airlifted late that night to Mumbai and deployed at various sites of operation in the early hours of November 27, 2008. In subsequent operations the security forces were able to neutralize all the terrorists and rescued hundreds of persons who had been trapped In the buildings. The operation came to an end at about 8.20 a.m. on November 29, 2008. Notwithstanding the above actions, questions have been raised in respect of issues pertaining to availability and sharing of intelligence and response thereto; time taken for deployment of NSG and gaps in maritime and coastal security arrangements. All these aspects have been reviewed in detail and further measures are underway to strengthening and supplement the existing arrangements in all these spheres, apart from steps for further strengthening the legal framework and other mechanisms for dealing with terrorism.
